FROM 2003-2006, I DID SIX DIARY STYLE COMIC ZINES. SOME OF THEM LOOK EXTREMELY SLOPPY BUT MY FRIENDS LIKED THEM. AND STRANGERS WOULD CONTACT ME TO SAY THEY LIKED THEM AFTER THEY DISCOVERED A COPY IN A FRIENDS BATHROOM. THIS COLLECTION INCLUDES: RICK OF AGES 1-4, MURBER 1+2, AND A BUNCH OF COMICS I HASTILY DREW FOR THE SKETCHBOOK PROJECT. ALL ARE ABOUT ME AND I THINK THEYRE FUNNY.

RICK'S COMICS ARE EVERYTHING A GOOD DIARY COMIC SHOULD BE. SIMPLE, SUCCINCT, FUN BUT NOT ALWAYS FUNNY; AND WHEN YOU READ THEM, YOU FEEL LIKE YOU'RE HANGING OUT WITH A FRIEND.

THE BEST AUTOBIOGRAPHICAL COMICS ARE THOSE IN WHICH THE AUTHOR'S PERSONALITY SHINES THROUGH ON THE PAGE. RICK ACCOMPLISHES THIS FEAT WITH APPARENT EASE. BUT MORE THAN THAT IS THE FACT THAT, IN REAL LIFE, RICK IS JUST A SUPER AWESOME GUY. FUNNY, FUN TO BE AROUND... AND SO HIS COMICS ARE SIMILARLY FUNNY AND FUN TO READ. THE VAST MAJORITY OF AUTOBIO COMICS ARE SO MAUDLIN AND DRY (MINE INCLUDED, I SUPPOSE), IT'S REFRESHING TO READ SOMEONE WITH SUCH AN UPBEAT ATTITUDE AND STRONG SENSE OF HUMOR RELAY STORIES FROM HIS LIFE THROUGH COMICS. THIS BOOK IS GREAT FUN.

Rick's comics may not be that well-drawn, but he made a book, and that's probably more than you've ever done.
